To Those Who Can Make A Difference: I am here in God's home today to show my devotion to our Lord by not financing the present administration of our Church. I pray that this small act will give others the strength to force the corrupt Catholic administration from power. Amen.